

Operation Kindness Makes 2023 a Record-Breaking Year for Texas Pets

The North Texas Animal Welfare Organization Had its Highest Adoption Rate of its 47-Year History

CARROLLTON, Texas (February 21, 2024) – As we kick off the new year, Operation Kindness is taking a moment to reflect on 2023 and all the amazing things that its supporters made possible for animals across Texas.

2023 marked several major milestones for the animal welfare organization, including 5,702 adoptions, the opening of the new PetSmart Everyday Adoption Center, launching a forensics partnership with Dallas Police Department, celebrating the 1,000th trip of its Interstate Animal Transport Program and much more.

Operation Kindness continued its mission of making the world a kinder place for animals and the people who love them, serving shelter pets as well as animals in the North Texas community who need lifesaving medical care, nourishing food and loving homes.

Heading into 2024, the organization's focus remains on helping the pets that need them most.

Expanding its reach this year, Operation Kindness will open the Lifesaving Partnerships Hub in Dallas. The Hub will bring a Pet Food Pantry and medical surgery suite to the southern part of Dallas as well as serve as a central location for Operation Kindness' Interstate Transport Program and forensic partnership with Dallas Police Department.

Thanks to public support, Operation Kindness will continue to ensure animals in need find loving homes and that pets in the community have access to vaccinations, microchips, spay and neuter services, food and more in 2024.
