

Operation Kindness Humane Society Offers Youth Spring Break Camps

The North Texas animal welfare organization invites children to explore the animal care world with unique spring break camps

WHO: Operation Kindness Humane Society, a non-profit animal welfare organization

WHAT: Youth Spring Break Camp

WHEN: Two sessions available: March 17–18, 2026 or March 20–21, 2026

WHERE: Operation Kindness Humane Society's main shelter at 3201 Earhart Drive, Carrollton, Texas 75006

DETAILS: To celebrate the start of spring and to help kids continue learning while out of school, Operation Kindness Humane Society will host youth camps for children aged eight to twelve during spring break. Two two-day sessions will be offered where young animal lovers can learn about animal care through interactive presentations, activities and games.

A behind-the-scenes shelter tour is included, making this a great opportunity for children who are animal enthusiasts to explore everything that goes into shelter operations and pet care.

Registration for all events is now available on Operation Kindness Humane Society's website. A 50% discount is available for sibling registrations. Space is limited, so sign up soon!

Interviews available upon request.

B-roll is available here.

About Operation Kindness Humane Society

Operation Kindness Humane Society, a 501(c)(3) non-profit animal welfare organization, operates a lifesaving animal shelter and programs to assist people and pets. Founded in 1976, Operation Kindness Humane Society is a pioneer in Texas for assisting animals in need of veterinary care, companionship and, most of all, a home.

In addition to pet adoptions and lifesaving medical care, Operation Kindness Humane Society's programs provide foster care for vulnerable animals, behavior and training support for pet parents, affordable veterinary services for community pets, a pet food pantry, volunteer opportunities and professional training.
