Visit and meet some of these adorable pets that are excited to find a loving family to spend summer vacation with!

Meet Button, a gorgeous German shepherd mix that thrives on human attention and isn't shy to ask for pets. Button is always ready to jump on the couch to enjoy a good cuddle session with a bright smile on her face. While Button knows how to relax, she enjoys going on walks and loves feeling the wind in her fur as she zooms around outside. Button came to Operation Kindness over 100 days ago with her litter of puppies who were quickly adopted out, now Button is excited to find a loving family of her own!

Jump into summer with Mikolton, a pup that can't wait to enjoy the beautiful weather with his favorite humans! A handsome pup that is always up for treats or a walk in the park, Mikolton would make a perfect partner for anyone. His curly tail is always wagging with joy that is infectious to those around him. Mikolton traveled an hour away from Weatherford, Texas to Operation Kindness and has been in Operation Kindness' care for over 75 days.

Meet Lily Rose, an affectionate cat that loves scratches behind her ear and can't resist a good cuddle session. Lily Rose has a very chill personality, she can nap for hours, enjoys bird watching on a high perch and sunbathing by the window. She never sees anyone as a stranger and won't hesitate to nudge your hand for pets.
